ANNOUNCING NEW LOTTERY PROCESS FOR MONTHLY KAMA'AINA
WEDNESDAY TOURS AT SHANGRI LA

Due to overwhelming demand for the free Kama'aina Wednesdays tours of Shangri La introduced in October, the Doris Duke Foundation for Islamic Art, in collaboration with the Honolulu Academy of Arts, has revised the process for reserving tickets. Hawai'i residents will now apply for reservations via a lottery system.

To participate in the lottery process for reservations for Kama'aina Wednesdays, held on the first Wednesday of each month, Hawai'i residents are asked to complete an official lottery form and mail it to the Honolulu Academy of Arts at 900 S. Beretania St., Honolulu, HI 96814, Attn: Shangri La Reservation Office. Lottery forms can be downloaded at www.honoluluacademy.org/shangrila or picked up at the Honolulu Academy of Arts' Visitor Information Center.

Winning entries will be randomly drawn on the first Monday of the month prior to Kama'aina Wednesdays (see schedule below). Winners will be notified within 48 hours. All entries will be discarded after the drawing. Applicants who are not chosen on their first try may continue to resubmit a lottery form for each monthly drawing. Duplicate entries will be discarded.

To receive free admission, residents need to show proof of local residency in the form of a Hawaii Driver's License or State Identification.

When lottery winners are notified by phone, they must submit a credit card number. Should they fail to show up for a booked free tour, they will be charged the regular kama'aina tour fee of $20.
